

FACULTY OF VETERINARY SCIENCE - DISCOUNT PROVISIONS 2013

This document outlines the various discounts available at the University of Sydney Veterinary Hospitals. The discounts listed below are available on all general services, boarding services, medication and over the counter products.

Staff and student discounts will only be applied where a current staff or student ID card can be provided at the time of the appointment.

VETERINARY HOSPITAL STAFF

Staff members of the Veterinary Hospital will receive a 25% discount.

In addition to this discount there are a number of items which will not result in any charge to the staff member on the basis that they contribute their knowledge and skills to assisting with these parts of the treatment of their animal. These include:

- General or referral consultations
- Blood collection fees
- If a vet has to be called out out of normal hours for a staff member's animal hospitalised then the service provided will be charged with the 25% discount being applied.

Veterinary Hospital staff can assist in the consultation and treatment but it must be under the supervision of the treating vet

All invoices must be determined by the treating vet. Discounts will be applied by the Billing or Administrative Nurses when the invoice is finalised. The Unit Head must then approve the invoice before it can be issued.

OTHER FACULTY OF VETERINARY SCIENCE STAFF

Faculty of Veterinary Science staff will receive a 25% discount.

FACULTY OF VETERINARY SCIENCE STUDENTS

Faculty of Veterinary Science Students will receive a 20% discount.

OTHER UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY STAFF AND STUDENTS

Other students and staff of the University will receive a 10% discount.

Faculty of Veterinary Science - Discount Provisions 2013

Date adopted: 19/07/13

Date commenced: 01/08/13

Approved by: Professor Rosanne Taylor (Dean of Faculty of Veterinary Science)

Signature: